DE4 5DP Tel: 01773 854321

SITUATED NEAR MATLOCK AND ONLY 8 MILES FROM M1 JUNCTION 28

Historic wartime road and military vehicles will be on show and on the move, mingling with the vintage trams, which visitors will be able to ride on as often as they wish.

There will be a replica Spitfire on display and visitors will be entertained with 1940s songs from Jayne Darling, Kev Mac and Peter Wayre each day.

The Red Lion Pub will be serving drinks including cask ales.

There will be daily activities for children including an Easter egg hunt for children aged 4-15 years. A children's 'Bootcamp' will also be on offer, for those brave enough to face Sergeant Major Marmite!

We offer reduced admission charges if you dress in 1940s / WWII costume.
