

The National Tramway Museum - Object Handling/Visitor Demonstration Assistant

Responsible to: Curator

Hours: Flexible Monday to Friday, ideally one day a week. Hours between 9:30-4pm

What will you do?

This is a new role and project at Crich Tramway Village to create object handling/demonstration sessions for visitor using items from our archive and collection. We would eventually like to have regular sessions for the public and we are looking for help with both the creation stage and the delivery stage which could involve different people or the same person (see the role Object Handling/ Visitor Demonstration Content Creator)

This includes:

- Following a demonstration plan, deliver session of approximately 30 minutes about objects in our collection.
- Engaging with visitors by demonstrating/explaining/asking and answering questions for the specific session.

This role will suit you if:

- You are confident talking to groups of people.
- Have experience delivering educational sessions however this is not necessary.
- You have an interest in museum collections and archives or are looking to gain experience.
- You have a keen eye for detail and accuracy.
- Are comfortable working independently & can plan/manage your workload.
- You are computer literate.

What do we provide?

- Full support and guidance from our Curator and the experienced Curatorial Team.
- A dedicated volunteer space with a kitchen & hot drinks machine.

What do we ask of you?

- To act as a representative and ambassador for Crich Tramway Village and the National Tramway Museum.
- To ensure the health and safety of visitors, volunteers and staff by following designated procedures.
- To work within the guidelines of the Volunteer Policy and related organisational policies and procedures.
- We realise that there are times when your plans may have to change. If you are unable to attend, please let your department head know as soon as possible.
